RECENT ALUMNI GATHERINGS

Space is insufficient for listing those who have attended recent reunions in connection with library conferences, but former students will be interested to know that large groups were present at the School dinners at the Atlantic City meetings in March, at the annual meeting of the New York State Library Association in Poughkeepsie in June, and at the conference of the American Library Association in Seattle in July. The gathering at Seattle was particularly gratifying, indicating as it did the growing numbers of the School's representatives in the Northwest as well as the professional enthusiasm of members of the Alumni body from a distance who found it possible to attend this year's annual A. L. A. conference.
